

Dorothy C. Bass

Director of the Valparaiso Project

Dorothy directs the Valparaiso Project on the Education and Formation of People in Faith (www.practicingourfaith.org), a Lilly Endowment project based at Valparaiso University that develops resources to help contemporary people live the Christian faith with vitality and integrity in changing times. The Project has sponsored grant programs, seminars, books, conferences, and web sites for adults and youth. Dorothy is the author of Receiving the Day: Christian Practices for Opening the Gift of Time and editor or coeditor of Practicing Our Faith: A Way of Life for a Searching People; Way to Live: Christian Practices for Teens and On Our Way: Christian Practices for Living a Whole Life. Two additional co-edited books explore implications of attention to practices for ministry and theological education: Practicing Theology: Beliefs and Practices in Christian Life and For Life Abundant: Practical Theology, Theological Education, and Christian Ministry.

Susan Briehl

Project Associate

Susan co-authored Practicing Our Faith: A Guide for Conversation, Learning, and Growth and contributed to the Way to Live Leader's Guide.

Susan is an ELCA pastor who lives in Spokane, Washington, with her husband Martin Wells. She and her daughters, Mary Emily and Magdalena, wrote "The Story" and "Food" chapters for Way to Live. She co-edited On Our Way: Christian Practices for Living a Whole Life (Upper Room Books, 2010).
